

About FIBCO 2022

On the tailwinds of the COVID - 19 pandemic FIBCO continued its legacy of serving the underserved of the community. With our faith, business, community, government, and individual partners we supported, served, and empowered with IMPACT. In addition to lingering residual impact of COVID, the reality of economic and social insecurities motivates us to provide service excellence which we are always striving for. We thank all partners and supporters of all sizes, individuals, and organizations, who make our work possible and impactful. We also gratefully acknowledge and thank our volunteer workforce who deliver with compassion of heart and hands.

2023 has begun and we are off and running. With this report and in the spirit of transparency we share accountability for the past. And we also embrace the challenges of change, transition, and the needs of the community in their future.

Thank you for your support and always feel free to learn more, join us at our events donate to the cause at www.FIBCO.org, Instagram, Meta or fibcoadmin@fibco.org.
